Earth Day

HELLO SCHOLARS!

With finals approaching close by and to follow the theme of the month we thought we would bring you a small form of a break. So if homework, tests, and deadlines have you down and you need a change in mindset, read all about Earth day in this month's issue and perhaps check out some of these natural settings to ease and relax before finals. We hope you enjoy it!

SCHOLARS OF THE MONTH

We have amazing Scholars this month! Click below and read more about them!

ALUMNI CENTER

Our CSI³ Alumni continue to make us proud. Read all about their journeys as they share with us the advice they would have wanted to receive as undergrads. They were once in your shoes not so long ago and look at them now.
